Rule 3 says that scholarships are awarded without reference to circumstances of candidates Are not these two provisions somewhat inconsistent? Does the son of the Distt Judge of Bangalore & Mysore require a scholarship to enable him to study in the Central College

I should like to have the Secretary's opinion

22/8/11

The intention of the Go of 1st Oct 1900 under which these scholarships are granted is clearly expressed in the preamble & in rule 3 of the order ~~would not~~ In the preamble the scholarships are stated to be 'for the encouragement of students of promise' Rule 3 is quite explicit that the scholarships are to be given according to order of merit without reference to the circumstances of the candidate I would respectfully

Submit that these declarations cannot be nullified by a secondary implication that can be inferred from the use of the word 'enable'. On the general question of policy there is as much (perhaps more) to be said in favour of a reward for merit irrespective of ~~circumst~~ the pecuniary circs of the candidate as ~~for~~ helping in favour of helping poor boys of average intelligence.

The inconsistency does not seem to be very real. JM

6 It is however a question whether in view of the institution of 4 scholarships for the "honors" course – which are granted for merit irrespective of ~~the~~ need – the number of these scholarships for the Pass course may not be cut down to two or three, or whether the condition of need may not be added to ~~merit~~ that of merit.

7 ~~In any case~~ Even so, ~~the~~ it would be expedient to make the change from next year & give the scholarships for this year as usual

8 All right. These schps may be sanctioned. On the qn raised in ~~the~~ 6 the ~~Resn~~, please
